

MITIGATING CIRCUMSTANCES INTRODUCTORY NOTES

Before completing the form, you must carefully read the:

You should use this form to make a Mitigating Circumstances claim for:

- Non-attendance at an exam, presentation, class test etc.;
- Non-submission of coursework;

Please note that you can no longer submit a claim for impaired academic performance in an examination, presentation, class test etc. If a student attends an assessment, submits a piece of coursework etc., s/he is declaring that s/he is fit to take the assessment.

01. WHAT ARE THE MITIGATING CIRCUMSTANCES?

Mitigating circumstances are circumstances that are acute, severe, unforeseen and outside a student's control, that occur immediately before or during the assessment period in question. Circumstances that are not acceptable are those where you could reasonably have avoided the situation, made arrangements to address the problem or taken action to limit the impact of the circumstances, as these circumstances would be deemed to be within your control. Please note that normally, a student may have a mitigating circumstances claim accepted once in one occasion only for a particular item of assessed work.

02. WHAT KIND OF EVIDENCE DO I NEED?

All claims for mitigating circumstances must be supported by appropriate, objective evidence. It is your responsibility to submit evidence along with this form.

Acceptable evidence is an original (not a photocopy) signed letter etc. from an appropriate third party (e.g. GP, hospital consultant, solicitor, police officer, University Counsellor) giving details of the circumstance, its duration and its impact. Letters from family members or fellow students are not normally acceptable. If the original document submitted as evidence is not in English, an independent (e.g. from a professional translation service, member of University staff, embassy etc.) translation must also be provided. All evidence should be relevant to the assessment period in question

03. IF YOU ARE UNABLE TO SUBMIT EVIDENCE IN SUPPORT OF YOUR CLAIM

Claims without evidence will be rejected. Do not submit a claim if you are unable to secure relevant supporting evidence. If your evidence is not available by the submission deadline for this form, you may wish to consider submitting an appeal once you have the evidence. Please note that the appeal will only be considered if you can demonstrate valid reason for not submitting a mitigating circumstances claim by the 2-days deadline.
